

Sustainability: it's an art Eco Art Exhibition

Artist's Statement Directions

1. Complete the form on your computer by typing in the highlighted boxes. Be sure to complete the personal information above the red line. This information will not be on display at the art exhibition.

IMPORTANT TIP: You will NOT be able to save the form after you have completed it. It may be useful to compose your essay using a word processing program and copy and paste it to this form.

3. Print this form by clicking on the Print Icon above. If you would like a copy for your records, print another copy before exiting the program.
4. Give this form to your art teacher to be submitted with your artwork. The statement below the red line will be publicly displayed along side your art, so please check grammar and spelling before submitting it to your teacher.

PERSONAL INFORMATION (for internal use only. This will NOT be on display.)

Artist's Name: _____ School _____ Grade _____

Address: _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone: _____ Name of Parent/Guardian _____

Artist's E-mail: _____ Parent's E-mail: _____

I attest that the work submitted by me is an original concept and was completed entirely by me. _____ (artist initials)

Artist's Statement

Artist's Name:

High School:

Teacher:

Title of Work:

How does this piece of art reflect the environment?

Sustainability: it's an art
Eco-Art Exhibition
at St. Louis Community College—Wildwood

School Submission Summary Form
Directions

1. Open this form using Adobe Reader.
2. Complete the form on your computer by typing in the highlighted areas.
3. Print two copies of the form; one for St. Louis Community College and one for your records.
PLEASE NOTE: You will NOT be able to save a copy of this file on your computer if you are working directly from our website.
4. Submit this form along with a maximum of 10 pieces of art to the college by the deadline listed in the Eco Art Exhibition Call for Artists

Submission Requirements: Participating high schools are limited to 10 pieces of artwork with no more than five 3-D pieces allowed. Individual students may submit two pieces of artwork as long as they are in two different mediums. Each submission must be accompanied by an artist's statement explaining how the artwork relates to the environmental theme, typed on the official Eco Art Festival Artist Statement Form.

