

Distinguished Alumni Award at St. Louis Community College

The STLCC Distinguished Alumni Award(s) is presented to individuals who have attended St. Louis Community College. Although it is not required that they be a graduate from the college, preference will be given to those who have earned a certificate or completed a degree program. The categories include alumni from education, public and community service, sports, media, government, business, arts and entertainment, healthcare, etc.

The award will be presented at St. Louis Community College Foundation's annual fundraising event, Taste of Class, which will be held on Saturday, September 13, 2008, at St. Louis Community College at Forest Park campus, St. Louis, Missouri.

ELIGIBILITY AND NOMINATION

Members of the community are encouraged to nominate a former student who has achieved eminence and who has demonstrated qualities outlined in the following categories:

A. Primary Criteria

1. Accomplishment in field of professional endeavor
2. Contributions to community which transcend the norm

B. Supportive Criteria

1. Number of years of professional excellence and community
2. Balance between length of service and accomplishments, and significance of service and accomplishments

C. Related Considerations

In selecting the distinguished Alumni Award recipients for any given year, the Foundation attempts to create a balance in the award across the following:

1. Representation of diverse fields of accomplishment – i.e. business, government, public and community service, arts and entertainment, etc.
2. Length of time since the alumnus received an award
3. Representation of community college demography

It is important that you substantiate your reasons for making this nomination with adequate materials to assist the judging committee in its decision. A maximum of up to five recipients will be selected.
