Voyageur

Voyageur is the student literary magazine of St. Louis Community College at Florissant Valley. The Voyageur welcomes submissions of stories, essays, plays, poetry, and photography. This work will be evaluated by an editorial board composed of faculty members. Work accepted by Voyageur is published online and annually in print and CD format.

Submission Guidelines

For your work to be considered by Voyageur, you must follow these guidelines:

1. ONLY students of St. Louis Community College-Florissant Valley are eligible to submit to Voyageur.

2. Students may submit more than one work. But each work must be submitted separately.

3. We prefer that you submit written work as an email attachment to rebest@stlcc.edu. Please write “Voyageur submission” in the subject line of the email. Please save the attachment as either a .doc or .rtf document. Photography should be saved on disk in TIFF format and brought to Drew Foster in the English offices at the below address.

You may bring paper copies of work, either delivered by hand or through the mail, to:

Voyageur
c/o Ron Ebest
Room C-147, Communications South
St. Louis Community College at Florissant Valley
3400 Pershall Road
Ferguson, MO 63135-1408

4. Stories, essays, and plays must be typed and double-spaced on 8 ½ by 11 inch (standard) white paper. Use a legible font (Times New Roman is a good choice) and try to avoid overusing text effects such as italics or boldface. Poetry must be typed on 8 ½ by 11-inch paper, but there are no restrictions on page formatting in poetry.

5. Make certain that your title page includes your name and the category (story, essay, poetry).

The form on the next page may either be mailed or hand-delivered to the above address. It may also be faxed to the English Department at 314-513-4143. Voyageur CANNOT PUBLISH YOUR WORK unless you have filled out and signed the permission form.
