

St. Louis Community College at Wildwood

introduces our third

WRITING CONTEST

for our local high school students

Submission guidelines:

- Poetry (maximum 40 lines)
- Fiction (1000 words)
- Creative Nonfiction (1000 words)

You may submit your written work via regular mail or through our website at www.stlcc.edu/ww/sycamore. If you submit your writing via regular mail, please include our submission form. The form is available on our website.

 Students from Rockwood, Parkway and Pacific school districts, including homeschooled and private school students, may submit their work.*

St. Louis Community College expands minds and changes lives every day. We create accessible, dynamic learning environments focused on the needs of our diverse communities.

St. Louis Community College makes every effort to accommodate individuals with disabilities. If you have accommodation needs, please contact the Access office at the campus where you are registering at least six weeks before the beginning of class.

First prize will be awarded in each of 3 categories: poetry, fiction and non-fiction.

Each winner will receive $50.00 and publication in our college literary journal.

By submitting to Sycamore, you acknowledge the following:

I certify that the manuscripts submitted to Sycamore, the student literary magazine at St. Louis Community College—Wildwood are my own work and I agree to their publication in print and/or electronic form if selected. I understand that the only modification to the work will be correcting mechanics and implementing genre formatting. I also understand that I will not receive payment or royalties in any form from St. Louis Community College for the publication of my work. I understand that all rights to any work revert to the author following publication.
