St. Louis CC - Meramec's Sutton Takes 197 Lb. Title At Mizzou; Powell Wins Third

St. Louis C.C. - Meramec freshman Ryan Sutton (Oakville) won the 197 lb. championship at the University of Missouri Open Tournament, defeating Cumberland University's Ben Driscoll by a first period pin Sunday in Columbia. Sutton won all four matches on the day.

Meramec heavyweight Cedric Powell (Duncan, OK) took a third place medal, quickly defeating Loyde Braidlow of Truman State by pin in :32 of the first period. Powell won four of five matches on the day.

The Mizzou Open features many ranked wrestlers from NCAA Div. I, II, and Junior Colleges. It is considered one of the premier open tourneys nationally.
