Meramec Softball Players Earn All-Region, All-Conference Honors
by Sports Info. Director Bob Frischmann

Freshman infielder Jessica Streiler (Pacific) has been named to both the first team All-Region XVI and All-Conference (MCCAC) squads. Streiler hit three home runs to go with a .341 average and 14 runs scored.

Teammate Jana Shewmaker (Buffalo, MO) was also named first team All-Region, as well as honorable mention All-Conference. The sophomore catcher hit four home runs while batting .289.

Sophomore infielder Kortney Miller (Redbud, IL) was named honorable mention All-Conference and All-Region. She had 19 hits, including four doubles and two home runs.

Joining Miller on the honorable mention All-Conference squad is infielder Brooke Meyer (Hazelwood Central) and pitcher Christina Heisse (Incarnate Word.) Meyer hit .283 with 26 hits, scoring 21 runs. Heisse was the workhorse of the pitching staff, usually starting one game of every doubleheader.

The Magic, under second year coach Jill Weiss, finished 24-30.
