

RELEASE AND WAIVER OF LIABILITY FIELD TRIP

This is a legal document which has legal consequences. You may consult an attorney prior to signing.

Field Trip to:		_on [Date]
Course/Student Organization:
Faculty Advisor/Instructor:
STLCC to provide transportation	YES:	NO:

I understand that participation in this field trip may involve risks of physical injury, property damage or financial loss.

I agree that by signing this document and voluntarily participating in the field trip, I release and hold harmless the College, its trustees, officers, agents, employee, and all others acting on their behalf, from liability for injury or damage resulting from such participation. Such release extends to my family, estates, heirs and assigns.

I finally consent that in the event of a medical emergency, the faculty advisor or someone acting on the College's behalf, may notify emergency medical services to render assistance and that I will be financially responsible for any expenses involved. If able, I am aware that I may refuse such medical services at my own risk.

I understand photographs, pictures or videos of me may be taken while I am participating in this field trip. If I object, I will notify the chaperone prior to the field trip.

By signing this form, I attest that I have read the above information and understand, appreciate and assume all risk of injury associated with participation in this field trip.
